RASCALLY RACCOONS

Newport News Park Discovery Center

January 27; 11 a.m. and 2 p.m.

These highly intelligent and resourceful critters can mean two different things to us: woodland wild creatures ... or neighborhood troublemakers. Can they be both? The fact is, raccoons use their many skills to help them thrive in both worlds. Please join us as we consider these fascinating animals, their habitats and their survival adaptations, and learn the difference between what's true – and not so true – about nature's "rascally raccoons."

AFRICAN FOLKTALES

Peninsula Community Theatre

January 27; 11 a.m. and 2 p.m.

From the desert lands of the Sahara and the plains of the Serengeti to Mount Kilimanjaro and beyond, join a variety of characters from a wide range of cultures in stories that celebrate the various folk tale traditions of the continent of Africa. African music helps to set the stage for these energetic stories. Click here for details.

FEBRUARY 1

THE FOUR PHANTOMS IN CONCERT

Ferguson Center for the Arts

February 1; 7:30 p.m.

An extravagant celebration of the iconic music of Broadway and more, The Four Phantoms in Concert brings together four Phantoms from the Tony Award-winning The Phantom of the Opera for an unforgettable evening of entertainment. Featuring Brent Barrett, John Cudia, Franc D'Ambrosio and Ciarán Sheehan, this glorious show celebrates the legendary work of the composers and artists who have made Broadway an American art form. CONTINUING:

BENJAMIN WIGFALL & COMMUNICATIONS VILLAGE

Torggler Fine Arts Center

Continuing through March 24, 2024

This exhibition is the first retrospective of work by Benjamin Wigfall, a Richmond native, by the Samuel Dorsky Museum of Art at SUNY New Paltz in partnership with the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts. This survey considers Wigfall's early career in Virginia in the 1950s to his founding of Communications Village, a community art space in Kingston, New York, in the 1970s. Benjamin Wigfall & Communications Village is organized by the Samuel Dorsky Museum of Art at SUNY New Paltz and the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts. Click here for details.

BIO-MYTHS: PHOTOGRAPHS BY NAKEYA BROWN

Torggler Fine Arts Center

Continuing through March 24, 2024

Nakeya Brown (b. 1988) is a Maryland-based photographer who has engaged the history and material culture of African American beauty products for the last ten years. Her artwork captures the spaces, textures, emotions and memories of these products and the women that used them, offering insights into African American histories and enduring questions of beauty, memory and self-definition. THE GUIDING HAND: TORAH POINTERS FROM THE BARR COLLECTION

Torggler Fine Arts Center (William M. Grace Community Gallery)

Through March 25

The Barr Collection consists of an astonishing array of Torah pointers or "yads" (Hebrew for "hand") used by readers to follow the text on parchment scrolls during a Torah reading. The Norfolk-based Barr Collection includes historical examples from master artisans, as well as contemporary yads that unite the realms of sculpture, design, and devotional practice. The Torggler is proud to present a selection of this far-reaching and masterfully crafted collection. A collection with local origins and an international scope, this body of work demonstrates the breadth of Jewish cultural expression and the ongoing significance of religious art in contemporary art and design. For details, click here or call 757-594-0800.

TREEHOUSES: LOOK WHO'S LIVING IN THE TREES

Virginia Living Museum

January 27 – May 5; 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Explore the forest canopy – indoors! At the Museum's newest hands-on exhibition, visitors roam from tree to tree as they discover the many habitats that trees provide for animals large and small. Climb through large treehouses, become an animal tracker, get face-to-face with wildlife of all sizes, move your feet on the forest-sound dance floor, and more! This exhibition makes learning fun as you explore responsible forestation and wildlife ecology. Click here for details.
