Expect extensive walking so wear comfortable shoes. $50 per person. For reservations, call 757-888-3371, Ext. 306, or email mooremj@nnva.gov.

CELEBRATING WOMEN'S HISTORY THROUGH NEEDLE AND THREAD

The Mariners' Museum and Park

March 18; 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The artistry of women throughout history is celebrated at this event honoring this sometimes overlooked contribution to our past. Our Curatorial team will present two of the most compelling pieces in our Collection – a Baltimore Album quilt made in the 1840s and a piece of English embroidery created by a young girl! A fun, engaging hands-on activity for both children and adults will follow the one-hour program. Click here for more information.

WOMEN'S HISTORY TOURS

Historic Endview and Lee Hall Mansion

March 18; 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

In honor of Women's History Month, learn about the women associated with these two historic sites. Guided tours will feature insights into the daily lives of women from different eras. A take-away craft will be provided at each site. Tours are every hour starting at 10 a.m. and ending at 3 p.m. Click here for more information.

JACK AND THE BEANSTALK

Peninsula Community Theatre

March 18; 11 a.m. and 2 p.m.

We are excited to have the Children's of Hampton Roads returning to our stage. This fun filled presentation filled with laughs, puppets, and audience participation will be perfect way to conclude our Children's Theatre season. Click here for more information.

RYAN SHAW: MASTERS OF R&B

Ferguson Center for the Arts

March 18; 8 p.m.

A free, community concert underwritten by Ferguson Center sponsors! Ryan Shaw is a three-time GRAMMY nominated artist who has shared the world stage with such artists as Van Halen, Bonnie Raitt, John Legend, B.B. King and Jill Scott. His music has been featured on "So You Think You Can Dance," "Dancing with The Stars," "Grey's Anatomy," "Lincoln Heights," and the films "My Blueberry Nights" and "Bride Wars," as well as the "Sex and the City" soundtrack. Shaw will bring his soulful, powerhouse vocals for an evening of rhythm & blues in celebration of the masters, past and current, who have scored the soundtracks of our lives. With the Virginia Symphony Orchestra, Shaw will take the audience on a musical journey as only he can, celebrating the music of Stevie Wonder, Otis Redding, Prince, Marvin Gaye, Donny Hathaway, Sam Cooke, The Temptations, Bill Withers and others. Click here for more information.

MARCH 23RD

U.S. ARMY FIELD BAND & SOLDIERS' CHORUS

Ferguson Center for the Arts

March 23; 7:30 p.m.

A free ticketed event (ticket required for entry). The U.S. Army Field Band & Soldiers' Chorus present "Heroes," a celebration of people who have gone above and beyond for their communities. Join us on this musical journey while we share stories of strength, determination, and courage through the generations of those that answered our nation's call. The Concert Band & Soldiers' Chorus are the oldest and largest of The U.S. Army Field Band's performing components. Founded in 1946 and 1957 respectively, these two ensembles combine to present joint concerts on their national tours. They have performed in all 50 states and 30 foreign countries for audiences totaling hundreds of millions. Click here for more information.

CONTINUING

FAMOUS FACES: THE PORTRAITS OF CALVIN BRIDGES

Newsome House Museum and Cultural Center

Continuing through April 1, 2023 (Open 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Thursday-Saturday)

Admission is free. Click here for more information.

LIVING APART: GEOGRAPHY OF SEGREGATION IN THE 21ST CENTURY

Mary M. Torggler Fine Arts Center at Christopher Newport University

Continuing through April 12, 2023

An exhibition examining the social impacts of redlining upon communities in Hampton Roads. Created by Dr. Johnny Finn, a faculty member at Christopher Newport University, Living Apart will be presented in the William Grace Community Gallery. Dr. Finn's exhibition examines the origin and ongoing impacts of redlining, which was the discriminatory practice of geographically demarcating Black and Brown communities, which were then deemed unworthy of investment by the government and other lenders. Click here for more information.

MAZES & BRAIN GAMES

Virginia Living Museum

Continuing through April 23, 2023

Maneuver your way through this mind-boggling collection of mind-bending adventures, 3-D puzzles and full-body games – an unforgettable adventure that's sure to challenge, entertain and amaze visitors of all ages. Click here for more information.
