SPECIAL EVENTS AND PERFORMANCES AT NEWPORT NEWS ATTRACTIONS AND PERFORMING ARTS VENUES

NOVEMBER 19TH

VIRTUAL LECTURE: TUCKER THOMPSON

The Mariners' Museum and Park

November 19; 6 p.m.

Join award-winning TV commentator, producer, and America's Cup host, Tucker Thompson, for a sneak peek into the next America's Cup, sailing's highest prize. On a nationwide speaking tour featuring New York Yacht Club American Magic, Thompson returns to The Mariners' Museum (virtually) to share the storied history of the oldest international trophy in sports. He will give an insider's look at the Cup's new class of boat – AC75 – foiling monohulls which are considered the future of Cup racing. Sailing fans will hear about NYYC American Magic, with insight on what to expect in New Zealand in March 2021, when all eyes will be following the 36th America's Cup. 100 Museum Drive, 757-596-2222. FILL THE CANOE FOOD DRIVE

Virginia Living Museum

Continuing through November 30; 9 a.m

For the month of November as a gesture of thanks and giving, the Museum will be holding our annual “Fill the Canoe” with non-perishable food items to benefit the Virginia Peninsula Foodbank. All individuals who bring a food item will receive a coupon for a free soft drink (can) or coffee at the Wild Side Café. Please bring your non-perishable food items through November 30. The canoe is located in the Museum lobby to the right of the guest services desk. Thank you all in advance for your donation! 524 J. Clyde Morris Boulevard, 757-595-1900. Click here for more information.

WE STILL HERE

Downing-Gross Cultural Arts Center

Continuing through November; 9 a.m.

The Visual Arts Advancement Collective presents their first exhibition as an entity. Comprised of both emerging and established artists, their styles range from abstract expressionism, to portraiture, to surreal. In “We Still Here”, the artists make a statement as a collective about the purpose of art as a vehicle of truth, societal reflection, culture, collaboration, and support. Each member will sponsor an emerging artist to display alongside them in the exhibition. The Downing-Gross Cultural Arts Center is honored to host this exhibition as we continue to build bridges to artistic entities throughout our community. The Collective will record an artist talk based upon your questions the week after the exhibition opens. Submit your questions via social media or the website. 2410 Wickham Avenue, 757-247-8950, Click here for more information.
