

Win BIG in the 2017 Newport News Tourism Awareness Contest

~ Look for contest and entry form in the Daily Press on Sunday, May 7 ~

Newport News, VA, April 27, 2017 – To celebrate National Travel and Tourism Week (May 7-13), Newport News Tourism is dedicating its annual Tourism Awareness Contest to the memory of Ella Fitzgerald, who was born in Newport News in 1917.

The popular contest, dubbed “Where in the World Can You Find Ella in Newport News,” will also put a spotlight on the variety of entertainment and performing arts venues available in the city. Six prize packages, which range in value from the $367.00 “Prelude” to the $1,106.00 “Encore,” will include gift certificates for dining, shopping, lodging, and other fun things to do in Newport News.

The contest will start May 7 in the Daily Press newspaper and continue through May 23. Contestants will be given photographic clues that match up to eight locations in Newport News where performances are held. All correct entry forms will be entered into a drawing to select the prize winners (Hint: Our website and Facebook page are great resources to help you find the answers!)

Beginning May 8, contest entry forms will be available for pickup from the Newport News Visitor Center, 13560 Jefferson Ave., and from the Parks, Recreation & Tourism office at 700 Town Center Drive (Suite 320). Entry forms will also be available online at www.newport-news.org.

All forms must be received by the Newport News Visitor Center by 5 p.m. May 23 and can be returned in person, by mail, fax, or e-mail. Winners will be notified by phone on May 31. A list of contest winners will be available at the Visitor Center and online at www.newport-news.org after May 31. The contest is open to all U.S. residents 18 years of age and older. No purchase is necessary.
